

“BLUE BLAZES”

Mat 18:9 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire.

This last weekend in Oklahoma it was hotter than “Blue Blazes”. Now if you are not from Oklahoma, hotter than blue blazes simply means it was hotter than being in hell. Of course there isn’t anything or any place hotter than Hell. Saturday out riding in the “Blue blazes” heat of Oklahoma we still had ice water and cold lemonade available to us. Oh by the way the official temperature here was 107 degrees and out riding a motorcycle in that heat was like riding a stove with a blow torch blowing in your face, but like I’ve always said the worst day of riding is better than the best day of work.

The point I want to make is this, as uncomfortable as 107 degree heat is, it’s bone chilling cold compared to Hell. In hell there isn’t a cooler of ice water or lemonade handy. There isn’t any shade or a room somewhere with AC. Hell is a real place and it’s a place you never want to go to and the good news is you don’t have to. Jesus Christ went to the cross and died for our sins so that we could miss Hell and gain Heaven. Hell is a place God created for the devil and his angels. He does not want a single person to end up there and that’s why John 3:16 says, for God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that whosoever believeth in Him would not perish but have everlasting life.

All you need to do to escape the heat and suffering of Hell is pray this prayer meaning every word of it in your heart.

“Dear Lord God, I believe your Son, Jesus, died for my sins. I believe that you raised Jesus from the dead so that my sins could be forgiven. I ask you to forgive my sins and I ask Jesus to become my Savior and Lord. Thank you Lord God, for hearing my prayer and saving my soul, in Jesus name.
