

QUICK TRIP

Jas 4:14: Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

Most bikers have taken day trips to some distance places and when the weather conditions are right and the ride is scenic the trips fly by. If you have ever ridden the Talihina hi-way in Oklahoma when the fall colors are changing you know what I mean.

Life is sort of like that. Here today and gone tomorrow. That's what James was saying in our text verse. A lot of folks don't give a lot of thought to where they will spend eternity because they think they will have plenty of time to deal with that question. The big problem is no one knows if they will be here tomorrow. This year a former employer of mine was killed when riding his motorcycle at Sturgis. I'm sure it never entered his mind that he would go to Sturgis, like years before, and not come back alive.

With that in mind I would suggest that everyone reading this settle once and for all the question of where you will spend eternity. You see like my former employer you're probably not thinking about not being around tomorrow but like everyone else you can't guarantee that. So why not pray this prayer and accept Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior so if you are not here tomorrow, instead of being in hell you'll be in Heaven.
