

CAMPING OUT

If you are an avid biker more likely than not you also spend several times a year camped out at bike rallies and other biker related weekend events. Personally I enjoy a weekend campout especially when the weather is nice and it's not raining a cold rain. When the weather is not so nice and I'm camped out somewhere I always look forward to getting home to a nice warm comfortable dry bed.

As a Christian I kind of view life in this present world as just being camped out and the reason I hold that view is I know this world is not my real home. My real eternal home is the home that God has waiting for me in Heaven. You see as nice as your circumstance in this world might be it's not nearly as good as Heaven will be. Living here as compared to Heaven is like being camped out in a cold rain. The only reason that God sent His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, to die on the Cross for our Sins is because He does not want a single person to leave this world and end up in Hell. Make no mistake every one is going to spend eternity either in Heaven or Hell. The question is, are you going to leave this world and enjoy the wonders of Heaven, or are you going to end up suffering the torments of a fiery Hell? If you aren't sure or just don't know you can make sure right now this very moment by praying the following prayer meaning every word of it in your heart.

“Dear Lord God, I believe your Son, Jesus, died for my sins. I believe that you raised Jesus from the dead so that my sins could be forgiven. I ask you to forgive my sins and I ask Jesus to become my Savior and Lord. Thank you Lord God, for hearing my prayer and saving my soul, in Jesus name.
