Text: 2Corinthians 6:2

(For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.)

One of the things that every biker knows is that when he's going down the road at hi-way speed it's smart to look down the road. Unlike riding in a car a bump in the road, a piece of debris on the road or some other obstacle can cause you a lot of trouble real quick. So when out riding it's smart to look down the road for what danger might lie ahead.

And in the spiritual realm the same thing is true. This old world isn't going to go on forever. As a matter of fact, when we begin to look down the road a bit concerning the times we are living, in it's clear that Jesus is coming soon. When riding, to ride safe, you look down the road to avoid trouble or danger that can lead to disaster. As we see the signs of the time unfolding before us we need to make sure that you have taken the evasive action that will keep you out of the eternal fire of Hell.

To avoid Hell and to gain Heaven you need to make sure that you have accepted Jesus Christ as your own personal Lord and Savior. Jesus is the only escape form disaster. He is the only door that leads to God the Father and all the wonderful things in Heaven that God has waiting for those that put their faith in Christ. So if you want to avoid the suffering and anguish of Hell then pray this prayer meaning every word of it in your heart.

“Dear Lord God, I believe your Son, Jesus, died for my sins. I believe that you raised Jesus from the dead so that my sins could be forgiven. I ask you to forgive my sins and I ask Jesus to become my Savior and Lord. Thank you Lord God, for hearing my prayer and saving my soul, in Jesus name.
